Dr. Thomas Mahoney, Superintendent
Oregon CUSD #220 Board of Education

Dear Dr. Mahoney and Members of the Board,

It is with bittersweet emotion that I announce my resignation as Assistant Principal of Oregon Elementary School, effective June 30, 2017 to pursue a principalship in another district. I am extremely grateful for the experiences I have been afforded during my five years with Oregon. Without these, I would not be as prepared to embark on my next endeavor. Knowing the great work that is taking place within the district makes it hard to leave; however, it is having been a part of this that will give me a strong starting point in my future work.

Respectfully,

Ben Hickerson

Dear Andrew,

Please accept this letter as notice of my resignation from the position of musical director.

It has been a pleasure working in this position at Oregon High School. Helping build this program into what it is today has been an honor. I look forward to seeing continued growth in the theater program and watching more outstanding performances as a spectator.

I would like to thank the administration and school board for entrusting me with this position in the first place and for their continued support over the past nine years.

Thank you,

To Whom It May Concern,

Thank you so much for the opportunity to work as a teacher's aide during the 2016-2017 school year. I have enjoyed working with the kindergarten team, Ms. Hawkins and all the others around me. Effective the end of this year, I am resigning my aiding position to accept the Pre-K teacher position for the 2017-2018 school year.

Thank you again for the opportunity! I look forward to the year ahead.

Respectfully,
