Highlights for the month:

- Ms. Cremeens and Mr. Turffs visited junior study hall periods to hand back and review test results from the February Practice SAT test. Students received score reports and an opportunity to see individual reports on questions answered correctly/incorrectly for a more in-depth review.
- On March 2nd, counseling and administration met with Highland Community College to discuss future planning and cooperative agreements regarding dual credit.
- Sophomore students attended a college visit to Northern Illinois University on March 10th. Students attended sessions about college admission, financial aid, and student involvement. Then, students went on a tour of NIU and had lunch on campus prior to returning to Oregon.
- Counselors and administration met to review course requests and create a first draft of the 2017-2018 master schedule.
