- Below are the reasons for OSS in March of 2016:
  - 4 for Use/Possession of Drugs
  - 1 for Possession of Tobacco
  - 2 for Fighting
  - 2 for Inappropriate Language
  - 4 for Defiance Disrespect
  - 1 for Possession of a pocket knife
- In past years, the police have not always been contacted for drug or drug paraphernalia depending on the circumstances tied to any given incident. However, following the first of the drug incidents that we had in March, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Boyer met with Chief DeHaan as this was a situation where the police should have been contacted, but were not because of a communication breakdown. During this meeting, Chief DeHaan said the Oregon Police Department is willing to help out with all drug issues at the school, and he said involving them is another resource to use for kids who may be habitual users. The other three drug-related issues took place after our meeting with Chief DeHaan, and the Oregon Police Department was contacted. Going forward, the Oregon Police Department will be contacted for all drug related issues in the future.
