Highlights for the month:

- Counselors and Mr. Nelson provided breakfasts for the top 25% students in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes and their parents. Wendy Nelson was the guest speaker, and she shared information specific to the appropriate classes including financial aid, the college search, and scholarships/merit opportunities.
- OHS Counselors were present at the 9th grade Orientation Night.
- Ms. Cremeens participated in the Hawk Take Flight welcome dinner prior to Orientation Night and will mentor a student weekly with the program.
- Counselors made multiple schedule changes during the first week of classes.
- Highland Community College visited OHS to complete registration with students enrolled in dual credit classes.
- Mr. Turffs met with all senior English classrooms to discuss senior topics. Seniors will have the opportunity to sign up for individual appointments with Mr. Turffs regarding post-secondary planning.
- Counselors met with an ISAC representative who will be providing mentoring to students at OHS regarding post-secondary planning. In addition, the representative will provide a FAFSA Completion Night at OHS this October.
- Ms. Cremeens traveled to DLR with Mike Lawton and Pam Pottorff for a staff presentation on the Return to Learn (RTL) protocol for the district. RTL is the protocol all buildings will follow to help accommodate students returning after a concussion as they assimilate back into their regular schedules and activities.
- Ms. Cremeens hosted 504 Plan annual review meetings throughout the month of August. Accommodations were added to Power School for teachers to view quickly and easily, and plans were disseminated to teachers.
